DETAILED ACTION

Specification

This application does not contain an abstract of the disclosure as required by 37 CFR 1.72(b). An abstract on a separate sheet is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Oishei et al '510.

The patent to Oishei discloses the invention as is claimed. Note figure 11 wherein the ends (65) of beam (24) have been folded back upon themselves as is claimed.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Vassiliou '480.

The patent to Vassiliou discloses the invention as is claimed. Note figures 1 and 5 wherein the ends (4) of beam (3) have been folded back upon themselves as is claimed.

Claims 1-3 and 5-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Kohler '293

The patent to Kohler discloses the invention as is claimed. Note figure 1 wherein the ends (17,19) of various thickness and free form curved beam (10) are deformed and project beyond the end of the blade (22).

With respect to claim 3, defining that the deformation is a result of folding appears to relate the manner or method of manufacture and does not act to define over the structure of Kohler.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
